MDMANAGE
LET YOUR PRACTICE BE A PRACTICE

MDManage Profile

A National leader in Healthcare Management & Technology

Simply put, you and your practice will get a higher average return per processed claim

MD Manage is a private company which believes in improvisation through technology, people and process. We continuously thrive to provide the best of the available services by research and development.

MD Manage has been in the business of providing medical and technology services for almost 15 years. Our knowledge of the medical field coupled with the technology prowess has enabled us to successfully deliver services during these years.

US Health care system is going through a transition that will change the way practices work. The insurance Companies are going through a technology drive change as well.

Given such volatility and changing parameters, we at MD Manage, with our experienced people and technology platform are in position to deliver exceptional services to the clients.

Our capabilities include guiding and implementing processes at Medical practice facility that will provide immediate value on investment.

Medical Billing Process

A National leader in Healthcare Management & Technology

Simply put, you and your practice will get a higher average return per processed claim

Our practice is born out of highest medical competence – we recognize it; you never compromise on your commitment for quality medical care – we salute it; you are proactively open to embrace innovative practices in medical care – we appreciate it; you never shy away from investing in cost-optimizing and revenue-maximizing medical billing practices – we admire it.

But, despite your best efforts, either your in-house medical billing or the outsourced service continues to be unimpressive – we are equally concerned!

Like many of our testified physician practices, who found themselves in similar but undesirable situation, you too could be experiencing the same. But, relax! That is all going to change with the moment you decide on outsourcing to our proven medical billing services.

Consequent to our ingenious medical billing services – complete with accurate charge-capture, intricate procedure coding, electronic filing of claims, patient billing, multi-tiered appeal process, denial elimination initiatives and compliance standards – your practice too will witness the turnaround stories that befell earlier, and start to feel the positive impact of proven outsourced medical billing, such as:

The following suite of medical billing services should be ample justification of our commitment to comprehensive, resulted oriented, cost-optimizing and revenue-maximizing endeavors:

Comprehensive Suite of Medical Billing Services

Patient Scheduling and Reminders

Insurance Enrollment (For Physicians and Offices)

Insurance Authorizations

Billing and Reconciling Of Accounts (Payment Posting)

A/R Management (Insurance and Patient)
